

Whitchurch To Buy 13 Acres For Public Use

On the recommendation of Whitchurch Township planning board, the municipal council has approved the purchase of a 13-acre parcel of land, lot 16 and 1, rear of the 3rd concession, to be used for public purposes. This is the first sizeable property ever purchased by the municipality for this purpose, and marks a forward step in the development of the township.

The land, owned by Mr. Harry Guthrie, is located at Vandorf, opposite the new township municipal building, and presumably will be used as a public work for the present. The purchase price is $3,500, fifty percent of which will be paid in 1951.

Dr. vanNostrand and L. P. Evans appeared before council representing the planning board, and explained the proposal for the purchase. Dr. vanNostrand said that the Board felt that the property was a sound investment for the township, taking a long-term view of municipal planning. He pointed out that the site could be useful should an addition be required on the Vandorf school at a later date. It was easily accessible to the new municipal building for any special events taking place there.

Reeve Ivan McLaughlin agreed that the property would be an asset in township hands.

Councillor McCarron suggested that the council might also consider the purchase of land immediately north of the Vandorf hall property. However, the planning board representatives stated they believed this property not large enough, being only three acres.

Whitchurch is owner, at present, of 25 acres in the north side of the township which is carrying itself on a $50 yearly rent from the Whitchurch Gun Club.

Two members of the Lake Wilcox Ratepayers' Association were present at the meeting concerning some lake front property to be used as a public beach for the residents of this summer resort who are not fortunate enough to have cottages immediately on the water front.

Council agreed that the dead end of the second concession, running to the water's edge and being 60 feet wide, could be used. Limiting this small beach to the township residents only, was left in the hands of the ratepayers' association.

Don Messer and his Islanders, will be appearing at the Newmarket Memorial Arena next Thursday evening for an Optimist Club of Newmarket dance. The Messer band is a popular C.B.C. old time orchestra which is heard regularly by most Canadians across the country.

Don Messer Orchestra At Optimist Dance Thurs. To Boost Athletic Funds

The Newmarket Optimist club dance at the Memorial Arena next Thursday night is expected to bring much needed funds to the club for boys' work. The Don Messer band, popular old time and modern radio band in a wide circle of people is the attraction. Optimists hope that it will draw people from a wide area.

Optimists have raised and spent a large amount of money for boys' activities in Newmarket. Primarily, they have sponsored hockey and baseball leagues and teams. Expenses run high for athletic equipment, transportation for out-of-town games and rent of artificial ice time in the arena.

Optimists have operated the arena booth for the last two years to raise boys' funds but extra income is needed badly. The two current projects of the club are the dance next Thursday and a draw next December for an air trip to New York and Bermuda.

The greatest feature of the Don Messer orchestra is the type of music it plays which is becoming more popular in both city and rural communities. Jigs, reels, folk music as well as popular dance music is expected to attract a large crowd from the district.

PROGRESSING

Mr. John Shier, Newmarket, is progressing favorably following an operation at York County hospital on Tuesday.

Turn Down Offer For Old Clerk's Office, Only Tender Received

Newmarket has had one offer for the purchase of the old town clerk's office at the corner of Main St. and Botsford St. On Monday night the council turned down an offer of $13,000 for the three storey section of the building. The building has been advertised for sale by tender.

The offer of $13,000 was made by a person who planned to open a fruit store there. Council turned it down on the grounds that the offer was not large enough and that the type of business could cause congestion at the corner.

The property committee, J. O. Dales and Tom Birrell, chairman, are in charge of the sale of the building. When the report was brought in, Councillor Dales said, "The property committee is not prepared to make a unanimous decision on the offer." They left it up to council to decide.

The council's chief argument against the building being used for a fruit store was that there is no rear entrance. The side entrance to the ground floor of the three storey section opens onto a "no parking" area.

It had been hoped that the sale of the building would offset the cost of remodeling the town hall for a central municipal building.

Some members of council said that it would be favorable to keep the back two storey section of the building as town property. Others want to sell the whole building.

Prominent In Bradford, Nwkt., Dr. B. Sinclair Dies Suddenly

A prominent medical man in Newmarket and formerly in Bradford, Dr. Burton Sinclair died suddenly at York County hospital on Tuesday last week. Dr. Sinclair was born in Stonewall, Man., educated at Stonewall high school and received his B.A. degree from the University of Manitoba in 1922. He received his M.D. degree at the University of Toronto in 1922.

He interned at the St. Mary's hospital, Detroit, and was then staff physician in the state hospital at Howard, R.I., until 1935.

He practiced in Bradford for 12 years and then after a year in the United States, opened his office in Newmarket, specializing in eye work.

Surviving are his wife, Grace, whom he married August 17, 1932. Mrs. Sinclair came from Fall River, Mass. Also surviving are a son, Alastair, 18, daughters Nancy, 17 and Marela, 12, sisters Lucy Sinclair, Toronto and Mrs. L. G. Wilson, Toronto.

The funeral service was held at Roadhouse and Rose funeral parlors, July 8. Rev. Fred Brecken conducted the service. Interment was at Grand Valley cemetery.

Dr. Sinclair was a member of Trinity United church, Newmarket.

Lake Residents Amendment Meeting Fails

A special meeting was held at Island Grove, Lake Simcoe, on Saturday night to organize a ratepayers' association. The meeting, held at the Community church, was an attempt to bring about amendments to the North Gwillimbury township by-law which imposes property restrictions to residents at Island Grove.

Twenty-six were present out of 300 ratepayers. It was reported that half of those attending did not live in the immediate area. The meeting was called out of order by Mrs. Arlene Link, Island Grove, because people were voting on something which did not concern them.

On Tuesday night, a special meeting of the township council was held at Belhaven to discuss lake shore assessments. Miss Lillian Holborn complained that council was asking her to tear down her fence on the lake shore road but was not asking other owners to do the same.

H. G. Mogg is now assessing Snake Island and from now on residents will be in a part of North Gwillimbury township. The island had not been assessed by the township previously.

Said Mrs. Link, "I am very pleased with the new assessment. People will feel much happier because it is an honest assessment. I was embarrassed myself because my own assessment was so low compared to others."

"But people should also have equal rights to the waterfront," she added. "As it is now, one man can put up a boathouse and dock on the shore and some other man is restricted from building. It's not fair," she said.

COMMITTEE WORKS ON HIGHWAY SIGNS FOR NEWMARKET

The Newmarket council set up a committee Monday night to look into the cost of highway advertising signs for Newmarket. It will report next meeting about possible plans for display signs near the corners of Eagle St. and Yonge St. and Davis Dr. and Yonge St.

The committee consists of Frank Bowser, Lorne Paynter, J. O. Dales and Mayor Vale. During short discussions councillors expressed some doubt as to whether there would be an appropriate piece of property available for a sign at Eagle and Yonge.

PAVING COSTS LOW

Needless to say it was a great pleasure for Mrs. Crowder to meet her brother's daughter and husband. An arbitration award has been given out determining the share of Newmarket public school costs which will be paid by taxpayers in part of school section No. 3, East Gwillimbury. The new union school section at the north end of Newmarket will pay 3.5 percent of all town school costs for sending their children to town schools. The school taxes they pay will vary every year according to costs.

Residents in the section which includes the town development in the township north of Davis Dr. found earlier in the year that they would not be able to pay the increased non-resident pupil fees nor would the school section pay the high cost of sending children to Newmarket schools. S.S. 3 has its own school farther north on Second St.

Residents and the two school boards affected were all in favor of school union. An arbitration board was set up consisting of three men, Robert Pritchard, representing the Newmarket public school board, O. M. McKillop, district school inspector and Wally Stephens, representing East Gwillimbury.

Members of Newmarket council, in previous discussions about the arbitration, had expressed concern about a five year arbitration award. They had warned that if a fixed award had been set for five years and school costs had soared in that period, the town would be carrying extra expenses.

The arbitrators' announcement to council Monday night made it clear that the award is to be a percentage. If school costs go up, the share to be paid by the union section will also go up. The levy on north end residents in 1951 will be paid in 1952 and the 1952 levy will be paid in 1953 and so on.

WHITCHURCH TWP. PASSES $107,000 SCHOOL SPENDING

One of the largest groups of school debenture issues ever approved by the township has been passed by Whitchurch council. Debentures total $107,000 for two new public schools, and one public school addition.

The by-laws passed call for an expenditure of $28,000 for a new school at Hartman, S.S. No. 1, located on the Aurora road, $29,000 for an addition of one classroom and alteration to the Ballantrae School, S.S. No. 11, and $50,000 for a new school at Wilcox Lake, located on the Green property, S.S. No. 13, a newly formed school section.

Road Supt. Davis reported that the oiling of township thoroughfares was proceeding. He stated that 12,845 gallons had been used on the 9th concession, and that the overall picture showed 1,810 gallons more oil being used this year than last.

Some weed spraying is also being done in Whitchurch. Mr. Davis explained that 800 gallons of mixture were required to cover a four-mile stretch of roads. Equipment from East Gwillimbury township had been engaged to do the work.

Seek Houses To Expand Subdivision

If the mayor had his way, there would be 40 more low rental houses on Eagle St. in the Armitage Heights subdivision. As it is, there is a possibility that Newmarket will acquire ten more.

A few weeks ago, Mayor Joseph Vale told council that he thought that Newmarket could have ten more Central Mortgage and Housing units, a number which would bring the number of rental houses allowed in proportion to population. There are now 50 in the subdivision which were sponsored by a federal-provincial arrangement with the municipality.

A letter was read in council Monday night in answer to the application for ten more from the mayor and clerk. The mayor had said in the application that Newmarket could make use of 40 more such houses. The return letter said that the application is being sent to further authorities.

'Elizabeth Sleeps Out' Featured At Red Barn Theatre Next Week

With two of its eight summer comedies now behind it, the Jackson's Point Red Barn Theatre opens Elizabeth Sleeps Out next Monday evening for a week's run.

Not many people have heard of this play, but Elizabeth Sleeps Out written by the late Leslie Howard, is one of those plays which always catches the fancy of an audience.

The story concerns a family of maiden ladies in the Murray Hill district of New York city. All of these ladies, four in number, are dedicated to remaining spinsters. However, the youngest one, Amelia, falls in love with a mysterious stranger she meets on the street. When a nephew, Worthington Smythe, turns up, he is introduced as a man from Crumple's funeral parlor, and proceeds to upset the family routine by taking dear old aunt Elizabeth out. In the meantime, Amelia's mysterious stranger turns up and all sorts of complications take place.

As Elizabeth, Amelia Hall (mother in "Life With Father") will appear again on the Red Barn stage. Derek Ralston will be Worthington Smythe, repeating a role he did so successfully two seasons ago with the Canadian Repertory Theatre in Ottawa. Others in the cast, under the direction of Silvio Narizzano, will be Penn Paterson, Daphne Goldrick, Phyllis Malcolm-Stewart, Peter Sturgess, Joan Watts and Timothy Moxon.

For the rest of this week, Charley's Aunt will continue to play as Bruce Raymond prances about the stage in the role of the phony aunt.

ETHEL WILLSON TREWHELLA

This is the fifth installment of a continuing "Story of Sharon" from its founding to the present. The story was written after almost two years of research and will, we believe, be a major contribution to knowledge of the past. The remaining installments will follow weekly.

A number of those who had migrated to Upper Canada were the young and the strong and frequently marriage between former neighbors had been solemnized shortly after arrival.
The Friends had their own special procedure in marriage during which the contracting parties
after proper announcement, made their vows in public meeting without aid of ordained minister. Each solemnly promised "through Divine assistance to be unto her (or him) a loving and faithful husband (or wife) until it shall please the Lord to separate us." These marriages were under the supervision of the parent meeting on Yonge Street.

As only clergymen of the Church of England were permitted to perform a marriage ceremony those of other religious persuasions had either to wait
or if outside the prescribed limit of 18 miles they had the privilege of being married by a Justice of the Peace. In 1819 there were only nine clergymen in Upper Canada and Rev. Adam
Elliot became the first travelling Missionary in the Home District.

The following is a copy of a civil marriage certificate issued to two of the earlier settlers of Sharon: "Whereas
of East Gwillimbury and
are desirous of intermarrying with each other and there being no parson or minister of the Church of England living within 18 miles of them or either of them they have applied to me for that purpose. Now these are to certify that in pursuance of the powers granted by an Act of
His Majesty's reign, I, Elisha Beman, one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace have caused the previous notice by the statute required to be given, have this day married the said
and together and they are become legally contracted to each other in marriage. Elisha Beman, Whitechurch, this 6th day of October, 1807."

Though experienced in rough frontier life not many, if any,
of these early Sharon settlers
had previous definite knowledge of the rigors of a Canadian winter of that time where frost was king and the snows lay heavy,
where through the silent intenseness of the magnificent solitude was heard only the roar of the wind or the call of the wild.
Only here and there could be seen above the tree tops the thin smoke from a settler's cabin, and the contact with human life was that of the red man as he wound
his way down the ancient trail from Lake Simcoe.

The going was rough and the puny strength of these men was pitted against crushing forces for by the unyielding law of the wilderness failure here meant starvation, but by the same law in reverse, little by little, tree by tree, the forest yielded to the settlers axe, and a new sound,
the sound of determination rang through the tany air. Cutting and chopping trees, piling and burning logs that today would out-value the best farm, the clearings widened, and stumped though they were—if a settler cleared ten acres in a year
it was considered excellent—with the arrival of spring he scattered the meagre supply of seed.

Each handful sown was sown
in the faith that from that age-less mystery of conception would come sustenance for his family and himself against the naked cold of another winter—that through his efforts a home in peace and liberty would be the reward.

In the cathedral stillness 'mid the woods around Sharon where the new settlers watched the first spring they had entered into a "peace and a deep solemn joy that only the finest souls may know." Comrades throughout the winter had been those friendly acrobats, the chickadees,
and those clownish conversationalists, the blue jays. As the snow melted and rivulets rippled in loosened joy the sap rose in the maple trees where high the wild geese piloted without compass their northern course. From every direction, waited on every breeze, they heard the voice of song. The woodpecker drummed his courting tattoo and Thoreau's Angel of Spring, the blue bird,
warbled his minor notes.

That bird of the twilight, the whip-poor-will, once was common in the Sharon woods, now its weird sobbing cry is heard only among the northern pines.
The robins came and sang cheerily, song sparrows, from here, from there, from everywhere, flung their arpeggios in ecstatic abandon. Across the low places redwings flashed and the pipe of the hyla was heard. In the evening, over the sounds and silences, like a benediction, pure and serene, rose the hymn of the hermit thrush.

The premiere showing of a northern spring to those men and women in the Sharon settlement was balm in Gilead. Stinging winds changed to warm breezes,
and as if an artist, early abroad,
had unrolled a canvas, color
thickly carpeted the woody places, and beauty brooded everywhere. From lingering patches of snow hyacinths peeped and drifts of starchy bloodroot yielded to clumps of white and purple trillium: violets, brazen in yellow bonnets, their cousins
shy in blue and white modesty, waited with the wild lupin which had borrowed its lovely color

Letters to the editor are always welcome but the names of the writers must be known to the editor.

The Editor: I feel that I must write to disagree with the June 28th remarks of Mr. J. G. Sinclair, the usually excellent commentator in charge of your Aurora News Page, in connection with chain stores.

In strongest terms, Mr. Sinclair urged a ban on establishment of any more chain stores in the area.

As a consumer, I must protest.
In almost every case the chain store gives the buyer a wider choice of fine quality products

from an April sky. Canopied ranks of waxy may-apple nodded in time to an unseen baton.
In the marshes the King's cups
of gold illuminated the shadows.
"Oh sacred flowers of faith and hope,

As sweetly now as then
Ye bloom on many a birchen
slope,
In many a pine-dark glen.

And through dead leaves of hope
shall spring
Afresh the flowers of God!"

Everywhere in the settlement
life surged in abundant promise.
Beyond the serrated tree-line
topping those hills to the east
they saw the sun rise rosy red;
they watched it linger in the west where the dark forest stood silhouetted against its shining splendor. Joyously through the years they saw the clearings turn from the lush green of spring to the ripe gold of harvest as the seasons swung into order, and over the sinister line of trees receded.

The buoyant optimism of conquest added new strength to the their sinews. Roads replaced the unspeakable trails, swamps were drained, bridges spanned the streams, cabins were abandoned for neat farm houses. A balanced over-all economy again negatived the theory of the accidental
for the arrival of these experienced and intelligent people from the south land marked one more epoch in history - it was the beginning of the agricultural period in Upper Canada. From the hearts of these settlers round about Sharon a mighty Te Deum swelled.

at lower prices, particularly in the food line. Consumers in any town or city, anywhere, appreciate the chain stores because the principle of such stores is to save wherever possible and to pass
such savings along to their customers.

Also, Mr. Sinclair's statement that chain stores are detrimental to local merchants is not correct.
For one thing, the experience of other communities has been that chain stores attract more business. In many smaller centres, particularly those close to large centres, chain stores tend to keep local trade at home and also to attract shoppers from the surrounding countryside who would otherwise do their buying in big cities or by mail order catalogue.

In Toronto, often described as a collection of small towns, it is the chain stores who have been largely responsible for building up the scores of prosperous shopping districts. In many cases, chain stores have been the pioneers in these districts.

The contribution of the chain stores to the Canadian merchandising field has been very important. Most independent storekeepers will agree that the chains have helped them by showing them how distribution costs can be reduced. Most independent merchants will agree that a local storekeeper who takes the trouble to be efficient has nothing to fear from chain store competition.

In smaller centres where there is only one main business district, chain and independent stores prosper side by side in friendly competition.

It seems to me that the usually "well worth reading" Mr. Sinclair is off the beam this time.

Yours truly
Wm. Moffit

PUBLIC DISCUSSION INVITED

The situation arising from the last meeting of council, when a petition was presented in opposition to the installation of meters, poses some interesting questions. At its meeting on June 18th council decided by a vote of five to three to install meters. Had the mayor left his chair to vote there would have been a majority of six to three in favor of meters. A very substantial majority one would think.

Immediately the decision to install meters became known an opposing petition was set in motion. This petition was presented by Mr. James Wilson to council on July 3, and the basis of it appeared to be that meters on Main street would prove a hindrance to business. Some, it appears, signed the petition for no better reason than that "they did not like meters."

The affirmative petition for meters was based chiefly in the belief held by many merchants that the absence of meters was a hindrance to business. The hindrance to business arose from neglect of the parking regulations on Main street, which regulation limits such parking to no more than one hour. But some merchants themselves were guilty of parking violations, for which there was no reasonable excuse.

If we understand the attitudes of Mayor Bell and Councillor Fielding aright, their consistent advocacy of meters was based in the belief that there was a certain cure for the whole parking situation. If meters were installed all would be treated alike, leaving no grounds for complaint. In the course of time there would be revenue for the town from parking.

However, the strong negative petition has created a new situation; and it is, as we have remarked, a situation provocative of interesting questions.

One thing is quite clear: Council has abrogated its authority to legislate by majority rule. Councillor Fielding crystallized the situation into the following question: "Why put nine councillors here if they cannot make decisions?" And again: "Is council working for the merchants or working for the citizens?" Those were down-to-earth questions. Council made up its majority mind to install meters and then negated its own decision.

However, it cannot be conclusively asserted that the citizens want meters installed in the town. It was because of the absence of such knowledge of the wishes of the citizens that we suggested taking a vote of the people. The question was answered in one way by Mr. Jack Bowser who asserted that meters were more a problem for the merchants rather than the citizens. One answer to that declaration is that if 140 meters are to cost $14,000, it is most definitely a problem for the citizens, who will be called on to foot the bill.

Supporters of meters will argue that the meters will pay for themselves over the course of the years. That is presuming meters would prove successful as a revenue producer, and on that there is no certainty. It is no more than presumption to assert that the use of meters will defray their capital cost.

The root trouble appears to be irregular parking on Main street. If that trouble had been removed it amounts almost to a certainty that no question of installing meters would ever have arisen. Police Chief Dunham maintained that the present police service is altogether inadequate to enforce efficient patrols in regard to parking irregularities.

The meter problem has now been handed on to the opposing petitioners, who have been invited to call a public meeting, and subsequently make recommendations to council.

COUNCIL SIDELIGHTS

Whip. Watson Bowser And Tough Jim Wilson Pull No Meter Punches

In our last "Council Sidelights" write-up we jocularly remarked that Mayor Bell was the only member of council who had a cushion on his chair. We sit immediately behind the mayor at the press table. At the last session of council the cushion had vanished, and we fervently hope that this concession to a more Spartan mayoral endurance is not blamed on us. For if anyone needs a cushion it is the mayor. He has some very incorrigible boys to handle. We would gladly loan him our cushion if we had one.

The outstanding question before council at its last meeting, as it was at the previous meeting, was parking meters. It dominated the debate and swallowed up nearly three hours of a four hours' session. There was an interlude when council passed out of the picture altogether, and the meeting was in the control of the visitors.

There was one free and easy set-to between pugnacious Jack Bowser and tenacious Jim Wilson. Mr. Bowser is all for meters; Mr. Wilson was there to represent the opposition. They were at it hammer and tongs for a few minutes, while council sat and listened. Jim Wilson did not yield one cubic measure, and neither did Jack Bowser. It was a pretty verbal wrestling match, and we don't know who won it.

Sharp Exchanges

Mayor Bell has put up better arguments for meters than he has done over many other controversial subjects. There is no doubt that the mayor is thoroughly convinced that parking meters would be a good thing for Aurora. He has given a lot of time to the subject, having contacted many municipalities, large and small. He has been consistent in support of what he believes would be a good thing for the town.

Councillor Fielding was also thoroughly consistent on meters. When Mrs. Fielding has made up her mind on a subject she does not deviate or mince matters. She has advocated parking meters from the start. Full marks must be given the mayor and Mrs. Fielding for knowing their own minds on this subject. The mayor charged that some members of council were "wobbling" in the presence of opposition. It must be said that neither the mayor nor Mrs. Fielding was guilty of wobbling.

When Mrs. Fielding attacked the deputy-reeve for alleged inconsistency in regard to meters she started something! There were some sharp exchanges between them. Councillor Fielding flamed up in a way reminiscent of Lady Astor in the British House of Commons, when she frequently set the mother of parliaments agog with her fiery attacks. If Victor Jones is the Aurora Churchill, then Mrs. Fielding must be Aurora's Lady Astor.

Whipper Watson Bowser

Councillor Jones and police chief Dunham had a sharp set-to. "Why aren't the parking regulations carried out on Yonge street?" demanded Victor. The chief rose to his feet with the swiftness of a man who has heard a pistol shot near his ear! "Why don't you give us more police so that we can cope with the work?" retorted the chief. "I've been on the job without sleep for 24 hours."

The chief put up a strong case for parking meters, and was ably supported by C. W. Stollery, who maintained, among other arguments, that meters "would prevent idle parking." Mr. Stollery also argued that meters would prove less costly than keeping a police patrol over parking regulations.

But Jim Wilson was up again asking questions, and before he could sit down Jack Bowser, with Whipper Watson energy, was back in the ring, defending meters. We thought it was a pity that the president of the Board of Trade wasn't present to hear Mr. Wilson say: "What about the parking site at the United church? When is it going to be ready? They have been working at it for three months and it still isn't finished." Then Stewart Patrick appeared. He wondered why cars should be allowed to park for hours on Main street while their youthful owners were busy in the pool room? Parking meters were the answer, declared Mr. Patrick.

Then the delegations departed; the mayor struck the table with his gavel for silence; and council was really in session some time after ten o'clock. From a semi-public debate, members now applied themselves to the main business of the evening.

And what was the main busi-

Trailer Tour In U.S.A. Town Appnt. Made Merchants And Citizens

There are many ways of spending a long vacation. Freed from his duties, temporarily, as one of the masters at St. Andrew's college, Mr. J. B. Garstang, accompanied by Mrs. Garstang and daughters Philippa and Patricia, has set out on a long trail, by motor and trailer, from Spruce street, Aurora, to Cape Cod, via Kingston, Utica, New York and Springfield, Mass. Taking this route they will evade an alternative mountainous trek.

We saw them set out around 8 a.m., on a brilliant morning, last week. Emerging from their driveway, they passed down Maple street and then turned southwards. The brilliant morning sun scintillated on the top of their trailer, lighting it up with the promise of a happy tour.

They will stay at Cape Cod for about three weeks, and then begin their return journey via Portland, Maine, in slow stages to Boston, where they will go sight-seeing. They will come on to Montreal and Ottawa and home again by the end of August. They will by that time have covered a great amount of historical ground in two countries. Trailer Services

The Garstangs have a very fine trailer, or, to use an old-fashioned term, caravan. In miniature, it possesses all the services of a home. Sleeping berths, cooking range, electric equipment, and all manner of gadgets. This caravan life is a simplification of civilized complexities. It makes an irresistible appeal to those who wish to lead the simple life on vacation. Caravan Origin

We suppose the caravan originated with the nomads, the itinerant gypsies, a race of people scattered throughout the world, who refused to conform to conventional ways of life, and the most celebrated of whom are the Romany, made famous by the works of George Borrow, and later by the Honorable Eleanor Smith, a daughter of the late Earl of Birkenhead.

The gypsy race, once numerous in Britain, is becoming increasingly less in numbers through the pressures of the Labor government. This is to be deplored since they gave color and romance to a civilization that has become more and more mechanized and drab.

We have no fears that two months of nomadic experience will convince the Garstangs that it is preferable to a home on Spruce street, whence they will return: Mr. Garstang to St. Andrew's and daughters Philippa to High school and Patricia to Public school. Meanwhile, we hope they will all have a thoroughly enjoyable trailer vacation.

Last year they were in England, and plan to return there on vacation in the summer of 1952.

Ken G. Moses

Mr. Ken Moses made a successful debut as Acting Town Clerk at the meeting of council on July 3. His first business was to read no less than 16 letters, nine of which were from the town solicitor, who appeared to have resolved to clear his desk. Mr. Moses read this large mass of correspondence in a clear voice and with excellent enunciation.

We think that in time Mr. Moses, who is quite new to his job, will do a good job of work as town clerk. He needs the encouragement and goodwill of the council and the town, and we are sure he will get both. Three months from now he should be fully conversant with his job, having taken it on from scratch. He is affable and obliging and easy to get along with, qualities which will commend themselves to the public, with whom he is, by the nature of his job, always in close touch.

Mr. Moses was appointed assistant town clerk in the first week of February of this year. A native of Elmira, he brought to council excellent business testimonials and fine tributes to his character, among which was an excellent reference from the ex-mayor of his native town, Mr. A. Brandt. Besides senior matriculation from a Business College, Mr. Moses was a member of the Elmira Chamber of Commerce and of the Board of Trade.

At present he has a rather hard row to hoe, but we have every confidence that Ken Moses will do well at the job of handling his new responsibilities, and

Recreation Commission

We were glad to hear that the Public School Board had recommended the appointment of Mr. J. M. Offord to membership of the Aurora Recreation Commission. John Offord is a man who is keenly interested in youth, and in all forms of public welfare, and we believe he will find the new office to which he has been appointed very much to his liking.

The Recreation Commission paid back to the town $1,500 of the $2,600 shown on the taxpayers' forms, and at the request of the Commission the above sum was handed back to assist in the carrying out of the Commission's work.

Parking Space "Why hasn't someone suggested the use of the vacant land near the public school as a good parking site?" That question was asked the other day by a local merchant. "There's room there to park a hundred cars," he added.

Of course he was right. The land referred to would make an ideal parking space. All that is needed, it would seem, is for the council to have a notice fixed up on Yonge street indicating "Free Municipal Parking".

Meanwhile the parking space by the United church is slowly getting into shape. But we're not sure that Councillor Corbett won't be right in his forecast made several weeks ago in council, that it wouldn't be ready for use this summer. For a slow job, hand it to the Board of Trade. Its executive seems geared to the trail of the tortoise.

School Festival In S. S. 4

A capacity crowd attended "Open House" at Strange school on June 26, an event that brings undisputed credit to the teacher, Miss Freda Farley, and the 30 students. It was a term-end festival of academic, cultural and co-operative achievement. There was a display of workbooks, shopwork and garments done by senior students, and health project displays.

Marvin Hunter, secretary of the school board, was chairman of the program, introducing Charles Howitt, whose inspectorship of King township schools has just recently terminated. He congratulated the school board of S. S. 4 on the fine appearance of the grounds. "King is one of the best municipalities in the province. Its children are privileged to call it home," declared Mr. Howitt, speaking of his enjoyable experience in working with teachers of the township.

He congratulated Miss Farley and the pupils in providing for ratepayers an inside picture of the educational and cultural training that is developed within the school.

Teacher Honored

Brilliant Piano Recital
The annual piano recital given by over 40 pupils of Miss Dorothy Armstrong, A.R.C.T., R.M., at her home on June 23, was more than an exposition of skillful technique. Varied Program

The 55-point program required nearly two hours and a half and consisted of piano solos, duo numbers, trios, duets giving a wide distribution of talent from the six-year-old juniors to senior pupils. Miss Pat Simpson opened the evening with "The King." One selection that captivated the pairs of small hands revealing the girls seated at one piano, four vitality and precision of a medley of American Tunes, including the heart-warming "Oh, Suzanna". Aged seven and eight, they were Beth Gellatly, Janice Hodgson, Frances Schmidt and Doris Wood. Beth and Frances had taken a year's training. Among the near advanced pupils were Mae and Shirley Jones, Maple, twins aged 13, and Marlene Lloyd, 12, also of Maple. They played a trio selection, which drew heavily applause from the audience. The Parade of the Wooden Soldiers, a duo by Mary Anne Moore and one other was appreciated. The senior girls, Pat Simpson, Julia Bell, Ruth Beynon, Gerry Campbell, Mary Anne Moore, Suzanne Grew, Beth Hodgson and Freda Dent, an artist in her right, did impressive work. Julia aged 12 displayed talent in the difficult passages of "Introduction and Fugata". Likewise Ruth Beynon was brilliant in her rendition of "Sprites of the Glen". The final touch came with Miss Armstrong and Freda Dent in brilliant duo piano rendition of "Chorale" by Bach, "Lubbers-fried" by Fritz Kreisler, and a group of sparkling compositions by Mozowski. The final number was the popular "Tea for Two". These were played by request, a repeat from last year's recital.

The program closed with a double duo number, the lovely Brahms "Lullaby" played by Ruth Beynon and Freda Dent, Pat Simpson and Suzanne Grew. Several others were unable to be present to take part.

HASH

BY GEORGE HASKETT
Newmarket Sports Editor

Holidays over. Everybody back. Good. Agreed short, wet week. Rain playing hob with the schedules. Knocked off Wednesday's town league romp and two in the Lake Simcoe warrings. Most of the schedules run out early this year so it won't be too bad unless, of course, get a lot more juice.

Manager "Shorty" Keats of Taxi Triple Sevens, we're told, is sitting up nights worrying about Town League back-log. So many games washed out, his ace chucker Bill "Joint" McComb may be on his way to hockey training camp before the finals are on the history books. Do I hear a chuckle from Specialty, Bell and Hoffmans? I did I thought so.

Came back to find the Triple Sevens still carrying the unbeaten torch, seven wins, no losses. They're about the only county team with an unblemished record. Odds on the Atomics who were closing fast on Pete Neufeld's Specialties dimmed Monday as the men of Wood and Metal speared the Bell.

Now it's a four point, two game chase for the Atomics to catch the fourth and last play-off berth. Specialty are "pro" now by the way. They and the Bell had a side bet of 25 smack-ers on the outcome of Monday's tussle. Specialty collected with a fifty buck 12 run fifth frame. Crowd ringing the Hoffman diamond was "biggest yet" in town circuit. Game couldn't have been played at S.S. diamond by the way; knee deep puddle in right field there. A couple of loads of sand could have remedied this condition.

Fred Speer, right fielder of the down-trodden Cyclemen splashed through it Friday and is down with the rheumatics, 'tis said. Cheer-cheer dept: Know something? Poles for the floodlights will be dropped at the fair grounds this week, reports eager-beaver chairman, Charles VanZant. An assist to the Office Specialty purchasing department. Poles required run 75 and 65 long, six required; tough to get but Specialty purchasers got busy and wangled the necessary in the north country and at a considerable saving too, by the way.

Offers of assistance for the installation of lights are still flowing in. Alex Spear has offered his services as Auditor to the committee, Bell Telephone crew has promised to hoist the poles, hydro men and town employees will chip in with installation help.

Touch off of the campaign of course came when Gordon Manning, sports-minded G.M. at the Specialty, opened the pot with a thousand buck shot. The fund now has reached $2,000. There's a long way to go yet but leastwise this time looks like we're going to have the lights. The committee expects to consider the awarding of a contract for the material this week.

Grunt and groan: You wondered perhaps whether Newmarket would have wrestling in the arena this summer. The good word from rink-manager Stan Smith is that the first "big time" wrestling show is booked in for August 2. Whipper Billy Watson, British Empire champ, will headline the opening show of big time wrestling names. Collingwood and Bracebridge have been drawing top flight crowds, Bracebridge putting in 2,000 clients for their opening hassle first of July week. Posters on opening "set to" will go up this week outlining the bouts.

Protests: Get away a week and what happens? Those Hatfields and McCoys of the Lake Shore, Keswick and Willow Beach get into deep water. Keswick won 16-12 we're told. Beavers protest and back it up with necessary dough over ruling of umpire Barney Revell. Seems Beavers who trail 16-12 have the bases jammed, two out; Beach batter swings at a third one and misses; so does Keswick catcher, Ken Hodgins. Umpire Revell calls hitter out and squeals Beach budding rally. Ouch. Guess it'll be a summer session of Lake Simcoe parliament for Ross Chapman and company.

Stuff and nonsense: In case our Dewey Kuhns was too busy over the past week becoming a grand-pop (congrats), will let him in on a secret. Maple Leafs took three out of four from his cherished Baltimore Orioles on their recent visit to the Maryland center.

Of course your scribe hasn't been there but we have it on good authority town league umpire Harry Thoms is waging unsuccessful one man "love your umpires" battle around the dinner table. Sons Ken "Motts" and Laurie "Ortie", with aid from the Missus have been giving him the business on those high outside pitches.

Splitfires edition 51-52 will have to get along without Bill Mabbett, we're informed. Bill, along with Mac Clement and Don Couch of the Stouffville "Clippers" are off to Scotland in the fall to do their hockey hijinks across the pond. Scottish League scout Claude Kewley is said to be angling for one other Splitfire.

Hope Ball Club, reports Bob Mitchell, will make their draw Friday, Pine Orchard at Hope game, for the "Bundle of Joy". Welcome back Morely "Joe" Case. Joe, who has been in sick bay for some time, returned to manage the Mounties last Thursday in their go against Vondorf. Needless to say the Mounts won by the odd run as a welcome back present. At Queensville Joe got knee-deep in a set-to with Umpire Haskett (no relation) and viewed proceedings from the midway mark from behind the wire.

Lions club program opens Monday, kiddies, at the park. Miss Audrey Rowland and Mrs. Myrtle Purcell are in charge. Thank you Lions.

Mounties And Nwkt. Share In Home Wins

Locked in a bitter struggle for first place in the Lake Simcoe Junior Ladies League, Newmarket and Mount Albert had a give and take week. Behind a five hit pitching effort from Marguerite Green Friday, Mount Albert beat out a 9-3 home win.

Rallying for three runs in the fifth to come from behind a 5-3 deficit, Newmarket found their way back to the win column Tuesday in a home-to-do with a 7-5 win over the Mounties.

In the Friday game Newmarket lasses were leaders 4-2 until the fifth, Mount exploding for six runs at this point to nail down the decision securely. Barbara "Junior" Watt and Barb Shropshire were Newmarket top swingers with two each. Jeanne MacDonald collected the fifth hit. All the Mounties shared in the nine hit attack launched against Darlene Stuffles with Ruth Longhurst boasting two.

Newmarket looked at a 5-3 deficit in the Tuesday game as the fifth dawned. Jeanne MacDonald, engaged in a pitchers' duel with Marguerite Green, did something right smartly about the situation banging out a homer and this, followed by Barb "Junior" Watt's hit and a Mount error on Betty McArthur's bid, stashed three runs to make it 6-5. Newmarket tacked on the insurance run in the sixth on an error coupled with singles by Isobel Rogers and Joan Quinn.

Pulverizing Taximen Win Cycle Game

Behind a pulverizing 21 hit attack, Newmarket Taximen had little trouble recording their seventh straight win Friday in the only game of the week in the Town circuit smothering Ray Smith's Sports-Cyclemen 26-3.

The Taximen were aided in piling up their count with 6 cyclemen errors and Ivan Bray gifted them with 4 strolling passes. "Joint" McComb worked five frames allowing two hits keeping the opposition scoreless. The Smithmen broke out against reliever Art Dobbie for two runs in the sixth manufacturing their goose-egg crackers on Ken Stevens' single placed in front of back to back doubles by Ken Russell and Freddie Speer. Cyclemen added a third tally in the seventh on a walk and Joe Caradonna's pinch-hit triple.

All the Taximen shared in the big booty. Harvey Gibney topped the list with four including a base circle. Alvie McKnight, Jerry Hugo, and Black Cain fattened their batting averages with three each. "Joint" McComb had a two for three night including a circuit smash.

Bill Hill was the Sportsmen's top swinger whaling out two hits, both being wasted. Fred Speer supplied the fielding high-lights working ankle deep in water in right field to nail down intended Taximen hits.

Taximen: A. McKnight, N. Legge, D. Brice, J. Hugo, H. Cain, H. Gibney, B. Townsley, A. Dobbie, W. McComb, F. Palmer, J. Baldson.

Sports-Cycle: B. Lee, J. Caradonna, K. Stevens, K. Russell, F. Speer, B. Ingram, B. Hill, F. St. Amand, J. Staley, E. Miller, P. Richard, I. Bray.

Harts, Diggers Battle It Out To 6 All Lock

Trailers 6-2 going into the last of the seventh, Ditch Diggers unleashed a four run rally to gain a 4 all tie with Harts "Diamonds" in an Aurora Town League feature Tuesday. The teams battled two extra frames without fracturing the tie, finally sharing the points. The tie kept the Diggers' unbeaten record intact and held the Hartsmen two points off the first place rung.

Hero one - Ditch Diggers was Mickey Sutton. As well as chucking a steady game, his three bagger in the last of the seventh, scoring Earl MacDonald and Bob Turan, was the big blow in the rally. Mickey in turn was whooped home with the tying run on Tracy Barrager's single.

Harts had two big frames to build their count. It was two in the first as Scotty McGhee drove out a hit to score two. The Diamonds leaped ahead 5-1 in the fourth on the strength of a three run rally, and collected their sixth, run in the sixth.

Diggers had their first show for a single run in the third and all they got out of three hits, an error and a walk in the fifth was a single counter.

Doug Richardson coming in in relief for Ed Aylett in the seventh along with Charlie Evans headed the Harts hitters with three each.

Harts, Diggers Battle It Out To 6 All Lock

Behind a well pitched five-hit shut-out show by "Lefty" Jack Brooks, Aurora Cubs polished off Brampton 8-0 in an exhibition baseball game at the Aurora Park Monday night.

It was the first of a home and home set with Brampton. Brooks recorded six strike-outs getting errorless support from his mates. The outfielding work of Archie Smith, Wayne Spence and Herb McKenzie was particularly "big league".

The Mundell-Dickson Cubs collected 12 hits and were gifted with seven walks by Brampton right-hander, Rosson. Keith Browning and Jackie Brooks poked out three each to head the parade. Paul Babcock turned in an ace man's job and chipped in with two hits with Bill Jans accumulating a matching number. Dave Pines had a perfect plate night with a hit and two walks in tree trips. Dave Mulliss was the visitors top hitter stroking out three of the five hits they assembled.

Bell Men Are Smashed By Office Specialty 15 To 4

Reeling off a smashing, agonizing 12 run fifth frame assembled via 6 hits, 5 errors and a walk, Office Specialty mangled the Bell Telephone "Pole Climbers" 15-4 as the Town League assumed full speed ahead again Monday at the Hoffman diamond.

Sharing the glitter with the sluggers John Sheddowick, Specialty fire-baller came up with a gill-edged six hitter. It was anybody's ball game until the fifth. Specialty had a 3-0 bulge on the strength of Charles VanZant's towering second inning run scoring fly and two in the fourth on Harry Brammer's start off double, side by side singles by John Hisey and Charlie VanZant plus a Bell infield boot.

Then the Specialty burst the Bell bubble but good as they batted around twice in the fifth. John Sheddowick, with a whole-some lead, let down in the sixth. Stan Evans murdered a long four sacker into right, singles by Bill Johnston and Mick Smith, a walk to Don Smith and an outfield error staked the Bell to 3 runs. The Hellenomen added their fourth tally in the seventh as Stan Evans stroled and Bill Johnston collected bingle No. 2.

Veteran softballers Long John Hisey and "Peaches" VanZant carried the mail for the winners with three hits apiece. "Bun" Cook stroked out two; all but John Sheddowick collected at least one.

Bill "Hot Shot" Johnston was solid going two for four at the plate and yanking down a trio of liners in center field that were headed for the home-run column.

King Drops To Peel - York's Second Place

Greetings to a new leader in the Peel-York circuit. It's Woodbridge. King lost its grip on the top roost taking a trimming from Woodbridge 19-9 and then battled to an 11-all tie with the gallant Kettleby clan. A seven run tally in the third was the big spoke in the Woodbridge triumph over King.

The bright side for King was two home-run smashes by Gord. Orr and Ted Rose. Phil Hobson on King mound got poor fielding support from his mates. Roy Usher piled up a three hit string to give Jack Kitchener aid in the pitching win.

Kettleby collected 20 hits, King 18 in their first-swinging 11-all tie. Most effective for King with three each were Charlie Shields and Cliff Armstrong. Bill Gillham and Cal Doan picked up high marks for Kettleby on the offensive side with a trio of safeties. Phil Hobson received relief in the seventh from Cliff Armstrong on the King side.

Schomberg coming fast in third place made it a double win week. Smashing from behind the steady 8 hit, 13 strike-out twirling from Ken Ellison, the Bergers put Woodbridge to rout 17-8. The Marchant Brothers, Doug and Don, were in the hit business with a trio each. Don Rainey's power hitting gave him two, including a base-circle. Ted Fawcett and Doug Travers supplied the Woodbridge hit fire-works.

Schomberg clamped a 21-2 strangle-hold on Kettleby for their second win. Ken Ellison, who worked five and Doug Marchant two, were the hitting stars in the Bergers camp. Don Rainey's stick-work gave him a four-baser, his second of the week.

Kettleby broke the shut-out cloud hanging over them in the seventh on Nobby Sproule's double, and back to back singles by Cal Doan and Jim Flanagan.

Pottageville saw a 9-7 lead melt before a three run Woodbridge rally in the first of the ninth, to drop a close 10-9 decision. Howard Archibald, Reg Lipsett and Ken Archibald were the big threesome with three each for Pottageville. Jack Kitchener took the pitching decision over Pottageville's Howard Archibald.

The Kettleby-Pottageville tilt was rained out.

Aurora Cubs Shut Out Brampton 8 to 0

Behind a well pitched five-hit shut-out show by "Lefty" Jack Brooks, Aurora Cubs polished off Brampton 8-0 in an exhibition baseball game at the Aurora Park Monday night.

It was the first of a home and home set with Brampton. Brooks recorded six strike-outs getting errorless support from his mates. The outfielding work of Archie Smith, Wayne Spence and Herb McKenzie was particularly "big league".

The Mundell-Dickson Cubs collected 12 hits and were gifted with seven walks by Brampton right-hander, Rosson. Keith Browning and Jackie Brooks poked out three each to head the parade. HASHMAN AWARD
Ted Tidman

Holidays, bah! Just makes it that much tougher to get back and sift through the past week's news and nonsense to pick a winner. Have hopped back among the pitchers for this week's Hashman Roxy Theatre pass winner.

Ted Tidman, a chap who hasn't been doing a great deal of chucking this season, tops our notes. Ted came up with a nice four hitter last Wednesday to put the quietener on Belhaven's busy band of sluggers 11-2. Ted's feat gave Pine Orchard their sixth win and shot them close on the heels of Keswick for the Lake Simcoe League leadership.

CANADIAN SPORTS PARADE

Surveying Canadian track and field sports in general and the recent Dominion Track and Field meet in particular is enough to bring us to cheers and tears simultaneously. Cheers for the brilliant athletic performance and tears for the fact that our champions will not long be with us. Canadians have a long and honoured record in the history of track and field and it seems a shame that in eighty odd years of competition we, as a nation, have little future to offer our athletes.

Flying Youth
Although the 1951 Dominion junior track meet suffered severely from inclement weather, the general caliber of the competing youngsters was very high indeed. However, the success story remained much the same as in the last five years with Lloyd Percival's Toronto Track and Field Club collecting most of the honours. Percival's Pinewheels piled up a commanding 301½ points with the Montreal Club running second with 61½, followed by the Hamilton Olympic Club, the Queen's City Spikes and the Montreal Olympic Trunks.

Displaying the advantages of careful, sustained training methods, the TTFC dominated in nearly all sections with its star performer Rich Ferguson finishing his junior reign by setting new records in the two miles and single mile respectively.

With flying youngsters such as Ferguson, Pete Sutton, McEwan and Johnny Ross, Canada should excel at Helsinki in 1952 at all distances from one to six miles, if the Canadian Olympic Association committee is sufficiently impressed in the next few weeks.

Empty Stands
With so much for the cheer department we graduate to a sad report. Attendance at our track and field meets is very, very poor.

It's simple to blame the weather, heat, rain or cloud burst for the general, disgraceful attendance at Canadian track and field events. Some of us offer a national holiday or some limping excuse but, even a combination of all this fails to cover us from deserting our game youngsters on their biggest days.

For instance, turning our head, for a moment, from the speeding relay-race at Varsity Stadium (where the teams whipped round like grey-hounds) we were shocked at the endless sweep of empty seats.

The boys were giving their all in record-breaking style but few spectators had even bothered to come and see them run. We're sure that many a kid looked up, too, and saw those empty seats and wondered. He likely thought: "What's the matter with us? I guess we're not worth anyone's time or effort!"

Whatever the youngsters thought (after weeks and months of preparation) the answer was very plain: few sport fans thought enough of polished Canadian sporting talent to come out and cheer it along.

We'll leave the reasons to you.

The Result
To sum up our national track and field situation, unfortunately, is a very simple matter. With only two or three meets a year, the better-than-average Canadian athlete finds himself self listening to attractive offers from American colleges because, apparently, we have no real use for him.

At the moment, Rich Ferguson, Pete Sutton and other bright Canadian track stars are considering sport scholarships from Michigan University, Ohio State and Nebraska. Soon they'll be lost to us for always.

What can we do (you ask) to keep them here at home?

Well, we think that Canadian schools and colleges should develop sport scholarships (or an equivalent) and put an end to the continual, damaging drainage of our athletes forced to seek greener fields.

Let's hope increased attendance will justify the fine efforts being displayed at the Ontario Senior Championships (July 8th) at Hamilton's Civic Stadium and the Eastern Canadian Championships at East York (July 14th).

It should never be said we've forgotten our college cheer!

O'Keefe's
